

The City in partnership with the award winning theater company PearlDamour and Shakespeare Walla Walla are co-producing Talk Play Dream - Hablar Jugar Soñar, a bilingual series of cultural programs that will pop-up around the city through 2017. This is a collaborative effort with the Milton-Freewater Downtown Alliance (MFDA), Milton-Freewater Library, Chamber of Commerce, and Milton-Freewater School District.

The project includes:

- Talk - Hablar – local roundtable discussions and story-sharing events to learn more about the artistic talents of our residents.
- Play - Jugar - a series of bilingual pop-up galleries and performing arts events in partnership with local artists, schools, Shakespeare Walla Walla and PearlDamour.
- Dream - Soñar –a dream booth for people to share their hopes for Milton-Freewater’s future.
- MILTON – a new bilingual play about Milton-Freewater and 4 other towns named Milton across the United States. This play is written by Pulitzer nominated playwright Lisa D’Amour.

This project is funded in part by the Collins Foundation, Oregon Arts Commission, and the National Endowment for the Arts Our Town Program. Our Town grants support community-based art projects that help to transform communities into lively, beautiful, and resilient places with the arts at their core. In 2015, Milton-Freewater was the only city in Oregon to receive this highly competitive grant.

For more information please contact Mike Watkins at Mike.Watkins@milton-freewater-or.gov.